Friday Morning, November 21.

Correspondence of the Rochester Daily American.

Extract of a Letter dated }
SYRACUSE, Nov. 6. }

I must add a word about politics. Dennis M'Carthy is laid out by something over 100, while his ticket is elected by near 500. This M'Carthy is an Irish Catholic of Salina, and boasts that he can control the entire Catholic vote of this county. Last year he came into caucus with 600 Irishmen at his heels, and carried the delegation high and dry. In convention, he told them they must nominate him for Assembly. Of course they did so. He has managed the same way this fall, but the Native Locos would stand it no longer. They have bolted and elected Phillips, Whig. The party that expects anything from the foreign vote, must pay dear for the whistle. In the significant language of M'Carthy, after his nomination, to a brother Loco, "if ye ride ye must pay."

The above statement, which appears in a Native American paper, published at Rochester, N. Y., must be taken with some grains of allowance; but the main fact is undoubtedly true. Mr. M'Carthy, one of the Loco Foco nominees for Assembly in Onondaga county, New York, has been defeated by 100 majority, while all the rest of the Loco Foco ticket is elected by 500. The two reasons assigned for Mr. M'Carthy's defeat are, that he was an Irishman and a Catholic, and upon these grounds he was ostracised by the party which professes such exclusive devotion to the interests of our adopted citizens, and that, too, after they had given him the nomination and pledged themselves to sustain it.—Mr. M'Carthy represented the county of Onondaga in the Legislature of New York last year, and, as we had reason to know, discharged his trust with credit to himself and satisfactorily to his constituents. He is, it is true, both an Irishman and a Catholic, but though we differed from him widely in politics, we never found that he was any the less faithful to his duties as an American citizen and legislator, because he had drawn his first breath beneath the skies of Ireland and clung to the faith professed by his fathers. We rejoice, indeed, that a Whig is elected in old Onondaga, but we regret to see an honorable opponent sacrificed by his own party friends and upon such unworthy grounds.

It is this sectarian spirit, this bigoted proscription for opinion's sake, that we have always regarded as the worst feature in Native Americanism.—The question about altering our Naturalization Laws was, and is one upon which our citizens might honestly differ, and Congress properly debate. Though in favor, ourselves, of admitting all who come among us from other lands, with the intention of becoming "bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh," to an early and full participation in all the privileges of citizenship, we can well understand that others should take a different view of the question, and oppose from honest, though, as we think, mistaken motives, the naturalization of persons of foreign birth until after a probationary term of 10, 15, or 21 years. But Native Americanism does not stop here. It not only objects to the foreign birth, but it makes war upon the religious creed, of the immigrant. And herein it violates one of the fundamental principles of our government. Have we an established church, or a Government Religion here, that any man, or any party, should seek to prescribe others because of their religious faith? So far is this from being the case, that here, at least, freedom to worship God is secured to all men. Other countries make a boast of their Religious Toleration. We glory, and with reason, in our RELIGIOUS LIBERTY.—Those, therefore, who in this land of equal rights and equal privileges, seek to prescribe any man, or any class of men among us, because of their religious creed and worship, are false to the principles upon which our Government and Institutions are founded, and merit the rebuke and reprobation of all good citizens.

"THE HAPPY FAMILY."—Gov. Ford of Illinois and the editor of the Jackson Standard, (Loco Foco) published at Jacksonville, in that State, are exchanging compliments, somewhat after the manner of our cotemporaries of the Milwaukie Courier and Wisconsin Argus. The editor says of the Governor,

> "In one acquirement we yield to him, and acknowledge his pre-eminence—that of one of the most perfect specimens of pot-house blackguard; and we therefore decline entering the list with him on this score, that we may escape defilement.—Since our publication of his corruption, we find the evidence thereof strengthened; and repeat, once for all, that we hold ourselves in readiness to sustain all and more, whenever put to the test."

The Governor, in return, hits off the editor in this wise:

> "But if Col. James Dunlap, President of the Shawneetown Bank, who it is notorious in Jacksonville, owns the press and types of the Standard office; who has made a fortune by skinning and gutting the bank of which he was President; who has his private reasons for being hostile to me, and who makes use of his ill-gotten gains to buy up such loafers and soap-locks as Roberts, to squirt his venom upon honest men; if he will repeat the vile charges of the Standard over his proper name, he shall receive my attention."

For our part we have little doubt that each tells the truth of the other; and we must be allowed to congratulate the People of Illinois upon the possession of so dignified an Executive as this interchange of opinions shows Gov. Ford to be.

From the Syracuse (N. Y.) Journal, Nov. 10.

UNSEASONABLE SNOW STORM.—The storm of rain which commenced on Saturday turned on the following day to snow, which fell heavily all day and until late in the night. This morning we have near or quite a foot of damp snow on the ground, which is probably two feet or more on the hills south of us.

Two feet of snow in Onondaga county, New York, on the tenth of November! Here we had a bright sunshine, a pleasant Western breeze and nothing to betoken the approach of winter. Nor have we had, up to this present writing, (Nov. 20) a flake of snow, or a hard frost. Indeed nothing could be finer than the weather with which the people of Wisconsin have been favored throughout the present Autumn.

A CATEGORY.—Certain correspondents of the Washington Union are discussing the pretensions of Mr. Peter G. Washington (one of the Auditors in the Treasury) to the character of a "genuine democrat." A serious charge is brought against him—that he once spoke disrespectfully of Gen. Jackson's portrait. This is held to be good cause for his removal from office. If so, what is to become of Father Ritchie, Mr. Polk's organ-grinder? He once declared that the election of Gen. Jackson would be the "greatest curse" that could befal the country. Surely Mr. Peter G. Washington's offence was trivial compared to this!

A GOOD SIGN.—We see it stated in several of our exchanges that a new paper is to be started at Charleston, South Carolina, to advocate domestic manufactures, as calculated to restore the depressed fortunes of the South.

☞ Our Hotels are doing a first rate business. The United States, which was only opened to the public about a week since, is crowded from cellar to garret, and none who stop there once will fail to call again. The City Hotel and the American have also, as they deserve, a full compliment of guests. Indeed all the Hotels and Tavern stands in our town have as much custom as they can well attend to. This speaks well, and speaks truly, too, for the growth and prosperity of Milwaukie.

POPULATION OF NEW YORK.—Some errors have been discovered in the census of New York City. As now corrected the returns show a population of 371,102, of whom 180,365 are males and 190,739 females. The increase in the population of the American Metropolis since 1830 has been as follows:

Year.	Population.	Increase.
1830,	202,589
1835,	270,039	67,450
1840,	312,710	42,671
1845,	371,102	58,392

☞ The WEEKLY SENTINEL, published this morning, contains twenty-three columns of reading matter; all the latest political, commercial, and general intelligence, full reports of the markets, &c. &c. Single copies, neatly done up in wrappers, may be obtained at the office. Price 6¼ cts. each.

TICKING OUT.—The returns of the New York Election show that Native Americanism and Abolitionism are fast disappearing from the political field. The Abolition vote falls off everywhere, and as for the "Natives," they have lost everything they had to lose. The Abolition leaders, while professing to hate slavery, helped last fall to elect Mr. Polk, annex Texas, and secure to the Slave States a permanent ascendancy in the U. S. Senate. The "Natives," on their part, while professing to seek a reform in the naturalization laws, have strengthened the hands of the Loco Foco party, who never were known to correct any abuse, no matter how flagrant, whereby they could obtain any political advantage. It was high time that those two factions should cease to cumber the political arena; and we cannot but rejoice over their downfal.

☞ Our streets were fairly thronged yesterday with teams from the country, loaded with wood, hay, and other produce. But were the roads leading to Milwaukie what they ought to be, we should have our town full of country friends every day in the week.

DEATH-BED REPENTANCE.—The Fifth Senate District in New York has always given a Loco Foco majority until at the last election, when Mr. Joshua A. Spencer, an eminent Whig lawyer, residing in Utica, was elected by some 600 votes.—It is supposed that the new Constitution, which is to be framed next summer, will remodel all the Senatorial and Assembly Districts in the State.—Hereupon the Oswego Advertiser says of the Fifth District, that if it has led a dissolute Loco Focoish sort of life, at least it dies Whig.

☞ Vice President DALLAS is about "to astonish the natives" at Washington by launching a new coach there. The Philadelphia papers speak of it as a splendid affair, the inside trimmings being of the most costly kind of white silk and pearl colored cloth. This is hardly consistent with "democratic simplicity," but Mr. Dallas has the excuse of being an "old Federalist." There is this, at least, to his credit, that he had his carriage built at home, and did not send over to England for one, as Mr. Van Buren is reported to have done.

GOVERNOR OF IOWA.—The Washington Union of the 10th inst. announces the appointment of JAMES CLARKE as Governor of Iowa in place of John Chambers, resigned.

FRACAS AT WASHINGTON.—Yesterday an unpleasant fracas took place at the Union office, between Major Heiss, one of the proprietors of the Union, and a Mr. Gray, correspondent of some of the New York press, and denominated by Father Ritchie as an "unnaturalized foreigner." The gallant Major came off first best, having applied a cowhide somewhat vigorously to the shoulders and neck of Mr. Gray. The latter had been forbidden to enter the Union office, but it seems minded not the prohibition. Hence the Major's wrath and cowhide.

[Mr. Gray is the correspondent of the Charleston Mercury.—ED.]—Cor. of Tribune.

MIRABEAU'S EULOGY ON FRANKLIN. The following are the terms in which the Demosthenes of the French Revolution spoke of our venerated Franklin. On the morning after the intelligence of the death of Franklin reached Paris, when the assembly was convened, Mirabeau rose and spoke as follows:

"FRANKLIN IS DEAD! The genius that freed America, and poured a flood of light over Europe, has returned to the bosom of divinity. The sage whom two worlds claim as their own, the man for whom the history of sciences and the history of empires contend with each other, held, without doubt, a high rank in the human race. Too long have political cabinets taken formal note of the death of those who were great only in the funeral panegyrics. Too long has the etiquette of courts prescribed hypocritical mourning. Nations should wear mourning only for their benefactors. The Representatives of nations should commend to their homage none but the heroes of humanity. The Congress has ordered throughout the U States a mourning for one month for the death of Franklin; and at this moment, America is paying this tribute of veneration and gratitude to one of the fathers of her Constitution. Antiquity would have raised altars to the mighty genius who, to the advantage of mankind—compassing in his mind the heavens and the earth—was able to restrain alike thunderbolts and tyrants. Europe, enlightened and free, owes at least a token of remembrance and regret to one of the greatest men who has ever been engaged in the service of philosophy and liberty. I propose that it be decreed, that the National Assembly, during three days, shall wear mourning during three days, for Benjamin Franklin."

THE AUTUMN LEAF.

Lone trembling one!
Last of a summer's race, withered and sear,
And shivering—wherefore art thou lingering here?
Thy work is done!

Thou hast seen all
The summer flowers reposing in their tomb;
And the green leaves that knew thee in their bloom
Wither and fall!

Why dost thou cling
Fondly to the rough sapless tree!
Has then existence aught like charm for thee,
Thou faded thing?

The voice of spring,
Which woke thee into being, ne'er again
Will greet thee, nor the gentle summer rain
New verdure bring.

The zephyr's breath
No more will wake for thee its melody;
But the lone sighing of the blast shall be
The hymn of death.

Yet a few days,
A few faint struggles with the autumn storm,
And the strained eye, to catch thy trembling form,
In vain may gaze.

Pale autumn leaf!
Thou art an emblem of man's mortality:
The broken heart, once young, and fresh like thee,
Withered by grief:

Whose hopes are fled,
Whose loved ones all have dropped and died away,
Still clings to life—and lingering, loves to stay
About the dead!

But hist!—e'en now
I hear the gathering of the autumn blast:
It comes—thy frail form trembles—it is past!
And thou art low!

Scraps of Curious Information.

There is in Ivory England, a lime or linden tree one hundred feet high. The circle covered by its branches is 245 feet. The branches commence about ten feet above the ground. The circumference of the tree near the soil is 46 feet

In France there are 7,000,000 Mulberry trees, which support silkworms that produce annually 3,000,000 lbs of raw silk. The value of the wine and silk manufactures of France is 600,389,298 fr. There is an oak in the forests of Cerissy which is 900 years old. In 1824 it was 36 feet in circumference and 135 feet high The trunk is now hollow and large enough to hold 14 or 15 men. There is an elm tree in Brignolle near Toulon, spoken of in 1650 as worthy of the attention of travellers.

It has been calculated that a 74 gun ship (which are generally about 2000 tons) requires in building 2000 oak trees, each 75 years old, and as there are not more than 40 such to an acre, it requires 40 acres of oaks for the construction of a seventy-four.

The locust near the Mediterranean produces annually 700,000 eggs! The sturgeon of the Black Sea produces 3,000,000 eggs!

Snow fell in Rome, March 25th, 1595, and there is no record of any such event to be found until the 9th of March 1834; so there was a space of 240 years without snow. Snow fell in Stockholm on the 4th of July 1837.

In Iceland with a population of 50,000, there have only been four murders since 1786! In Portugal there is one deaf and dumb person to 1539. Switzerland one to 500; Spain 1539; France, Italy, Hungary, Sweden, Norway, Russia, Poland and Great Britain, each one to 1539 United States, one to 2000. MARINE NEWS.

From the Buffalo Pilot, Nov. 12.

The steamboat Indiana, which has been both burned and sunk on her last trip, appeared at her post yesterday forenoon, looking for all the world, just as if nothing had happened to her. On going aboard, we were re-assured that she had neither been consumed by devouring flames, or engulfed in the merciless waters of Maumee Bay.

The brig Preble, in coming into the harbor on Monday night, passed the north pier and drifted ashore. Lighters were placed alongside, and she was nearly ready to float when we saw her last, yesterday, and would be soon safe in port.

The schr. Aurora has proved a total loss, with an insurance of $1200. She has been beaten to pieces by the waves.

WRECKS ON LAKE ONTARIO.—The brig Algoma, is ashore at Port Dalhousie. She had on board 3000 bushels wheat and 800 bbls flour. She is on the beach and is filled with water. It is feared that she will be a total wreck, and her cargo will be nearly all destroyed. She is owned by Mr. Pardee, in Oswego.

The schr. Victoria, a Canada vessel, is ashore at the same place, but not in so bad condition. Her freight was light.

As the steamer Lady of the Lake came down from Lewiston, yesterday, she saw three vessels on the beach between Lewiston and this port—one at the thirty mile creek. Saturday and Sunday were bad days on the lake.—[Rochester Democrat Nov. 11.

There is a letter (says the Mirror) in the Post Office of this city with a Chinese superscription. Who can read it? Who speaks "broken China?"—[N. Y. Gaz.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—Fifty houses were destroyed by fire at Wilmington, N. C., on the 4th inst. The loss is estimated at $175,000.

A Chapter from the Chronicles of New Amsterdam.

In this go-ahead age, when men in cars outfly the wind, and news on wires leaves Old Time creeping behind, it may be instructive to turn back among the musty records of the Dutch dynasty, and learn how man travelled in those old days. We do not mean by these records that side-shaking and face-distorting History of New Amsterdam, by the renowned author of the sketch book, but we refer to those veritable documents written in the quaint chirography of the days when Peter Wolferson Van Couwenhover and Johannes Pieterson Van Bruggh were Schepens, (Aldermen) and worthily supported the rule and dignity of Burgomasters Oloff Stevenson Van Cortlandt and Martin Krigier, which records, we believe, are now in the Register's Office of our beloved Gotham.

Ye who can travel at the rate of twenty miles an hours in those great steam-palaces Oregon and Hendrick Hudson, where luxurious saloons & gorgeous state-rooms "take the prisoned form and lap it in Elysium," open wide your astonished optics and peruse the following literal translation of the journal of—but let the old Knickerbockers speak for themselves:

"Journal kept by the Commissioners, Cornelius Van Ruyven, Burgomaster Van Cortlandt, and Mr. John Lawrence, citizens and inhabitants of the City of New Amsterdam, on their voyage to Herford:

"Anno 1663, on the 15th of October, being Monday. At sun rising, we departed with the yacht of Dirk Smith, the wind being contrary; we came, however, with that tide as far as the Varkins or Hog's Island, and as we could not, by reason of the strong ebb, advance any farther with rowing, we cast anchor and went on shore. The ebb being spent, we weighed anchor; at low-water got through Hell-Gate, and, by luffing and rowing, came as far as Minnelly's Island, where the tide stopt again

16th October.—Early in the morning we weighed anchor again, the wind being still contrary. The tide stopt near Oyster Bay. The wind being pretty good in the afternoon, we got sight of Stratford point. The wind shifted, and the tide being spent, we cast anchor.

"17th October: Early in the morning we were again under sail, with a good tide and a contrary wind; nevertheless, by luffing and rowing we made Milford between 8 and 9 o'clock, where we immediately addressed ourselves to Mr. Bryan, merchant, begging the favor of him to provide three horses for us to ride to Herford; with which he undertook to do, and said that he purposed to go there himself. In the meantime we went to pay our compliments to the magistrates, Mr. Treat and Penn, but found neither of them at home; afterwards Mr. Treat came to us at the inn; after mutual compliments, we acquainted him with the reason of our coming and journey to Herford, requesting him to take our yacht, which we left in the harbor, under his protection till our return, in case any privateers, which we understood hovered about there, should attack it, which he accepted of; we also recommended the same to young Mr. Bryan.

In the mean time we understood that no more than two horses could be had unless a young man who came from Herford would let us his. The young man being called we agreed with him for the hire of his horse, for fourteen English shillings, but when the horse should be delivered he receded from his bargain: being asked since we were absolutely agreed, he would hardly explain himself; but said at last he feared his people at Herford would take it amiss of him for assisting those who were their enemies—which was taken amiss by the magistrate, who was present, who told him that according to agreement he must deliver his horse, which he finally did, but with much reluctance. After dinner, the horses being ready, we mounted and rode to Newhaven, where we arrived an hour or two before dark. The horses being taken care of, we waited upon the Deputy Governor, Mr. Gilbert, but did not find him at home. We stayed that night at Newhaven.

18th October, it being Thursday. We departed from Newhaven at sun-rising, in company with Mr. Bryan, merchant of Milford, and Mr Poll, and came at Herford about four o'clock."

Thus reads the log-book of the first official diplomatic embassy ever undertaken in this country. The object of this mission was to settle that ever-recurring difficulty, a boundary line between the Connecticut colony and the Dutch possessions. Four days, sailing and riding with all dilligence were consumed in the getting from the Stadt house, at the corner which is now Coenties' slip and Water street to the city of Hartford. On Sunday (one hundred and eighty-two years ago Tuesday) the worthy Dutchmen attended church and dined with the Governor, (John Winthrop, we believe) The object of their mission, however, was not accomplished, and they departed on the 24th of the month for their home, bearing from the Connecticut Government an official document thus superscribed: "These for the Right Honorable Peter Stuyvesant, Director General at the Mahnados." With the advantage of fair winds they made the homeward voyage in three days!

And these were glorious old times!—Men enjoyed life then: they rose leisurely, breakfasted quietly, sipped their scheidam lazily, smoked bountifully, talked sparingly and slept long and peacefully. If they travelled, they went slowly and surely; if they stayed at home, they did so contentedly. No steam boilers blew them up; no cars ran them off the track; no electricity shocked their sober nerves. And when they approached their graves they could look back with a clear conscience and say, "I have enjoyed this good world excellently, and, trusting that I have done right, I will now lay me down and rest eternally."

☞ The Madison brought us a mail from Chicago yesterday with one day's later papers from th East.

THE MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, }
Milwaukie, Nov. 20, 1845. }

A good deal of Wheat has come in to-day, and prices droops somewhat. During the morning 73 @ 74 cts. was paid; but towards evening there was a decline of a cent or two a bushel.

The Madison arrived to-day from Chicago. She carries down a large load of flour (some 2300 barrels) at $1 per barrel.

A regular Northwester, accompanied with rain and sleet, set in about noon to-day, and bids fair to last awhile. The Madison will hardly go out until the storm is over.

BUFFALO, Nov. 10.—The New York mail, due this morning, has failed to arrive, consequently we are without any later advices of the state of the market at that point than the afternoon of the 7th. As a general thing prices here are governed in a great measure by the prices in N. York, and any interruption of the regular mode of communication between these two points, is sensibly felt in our own market. Nevertheless, we hear of the sale of 2000 bu Southport wheat, being part of the cargo of the Jo Ward, at 95 cents, and 1000 bu Wisconsin in store, being the balance of the cargo of the Hercules, at 93. In flour we notice the sale of 600 bbls. Monroe City Mills, Michigan at $4 87½—500 do. Macomb Mills, at $4 84—100 do. Prairieville from Milwaukie, at $4 84, and 400 bbls mixed Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, at $4 75.—Com. Adv.

NEW-YORK, Nov. 10.—Flour a shade better; 3000 bbls were taken in one lot on speculation at $6.19.—Several other parcels at the same price, and one lot in store, with the privilege of remaining 10 days, at $6.25. No sales of Wheat. A boat load of Northern Rye sold at 77 cents delivered; other parcels were held higher. A cargo of Southern corn [weevily of course,] sold at 71c. 56 lbs. a boat load of Northern Corn, to go East, at 75c. weight, in the slip; oats 46c; barley 60a 58.

Mess Pork is $11.12½, with sales: 700 bbls. prime brought $10.50. Beef, city $5 and $7, country $4.50a 5. Lard is retarded by high freights.—Herald.

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—The transactions in flour have been free to-day, sales of Genesee at prices from $6a6½. A load of Wheat sold this morning at 131c. and sales were subsequently made at 128c., 130c and 131c.—Atlas.

☞ WHAT HAS CAUSED THIS GREAT COMMOTION OUR COUNTRY THROUGH?—It's Sherman's Medicated Lozenges, the fame of which has spread from Maine to Georgia, and from the Atlantic to the Rocky Mountains—all over the land wherever a mother has a noisy and fretful some child, Doct. Sherman's Worm Destroyer is enquired after and resorted to—the troubles removed, the child becomes endurable, and whenever a child is suffering from worms, when it gets a taste of the Lozenge, and feels the relief it begins to cry for more. The very worms themselves kick up a dust about them whenever they are used. Wherever Sherman's Cough Lozenges are known, no medicine is so earnestly sought after, because it costs but little money and gives great relief even in the most inveterate cases. Rev. Mr. De Forest, Rev. Mr. Eastmond, Rev. Mr. Streeter, and a host of persons of the first respectability have given in their testimony concerning them, and they say there is no medicine like them, and the Camphor Lozenges are equally surprising. Who ever heard of the most severe cases of headache being cured in a few minutes? Yet such is the fact when Sherman's Camphor Lozenges are used. Palpitations also are quieted—nervous diseases and depression of spirits removed, and affections of the bowels permanently cured, and Rheumatism. Pain and weakness in the back, chest, side, loins, arms, and various parts of the body, is cured by Sherman's Poor Man's Plaster, which is not only a friend to the poor, but also to the rich, and as it is only 12½ cts, is within the reach of all.

☞ See Supplement.

☞ PINE AND WILD CHERRY [illegible] of our own soil, and are generally known to possess even in the common way of preparation, remarkable virtues in the cure of diseases of the Lungs. How much more valuable then must a highly concentrated preparation prove, when so combined with other articles as to act in harmony with each other, and adapted to the various forms and stages of the diseases it is so eminently calculated to alleviate.

The Balsam of Wild Cherry never fails to give relief, and cures after every every other means have been tried in vain. This has been proven in thousands of instances, where it had effected radical cures, after the patient had been given up by all his friends and physicians. For sale by A. F. Clarke. ☞ See Advertisement.

☞ "GOOD NEWS TO THE CONSUMPTIVE!"—How many thousands annually sink into the grave under the influence of this dreadful scourge! and, worse than all, how many of the young are, by means of this malady, taken away before they have finished out "half their days." Doct. Rogers's Olosaonian, or All-healing Balsam, is doing wonders in the way of arresting this evil. It cures the sick and restores to health again.

Mr. H. Lisbon, residing at 199 Rivington street, who had been troubled with a severe cough for some years, and had frequently had turns of raising blood, found more benefit from one bottle of the Olosaonian, than from any other medicine which he had ever used. A host of names could be given to show that this celebrated remedy is all it claims to be. It is all-healing in its properties, and those who resort to it for relief, will not be disappointed.

☞ See Supplement.

☞ The sorrowing of those who are in deep affliction for themselves or friends low with Consumption, or sickened with distressing Coughs and Colds, will soon be changed to a song of joy. The extension of the sale of Mr. Brinckerhoff's Health Restorative, is sufficient evidence of the confidence placed in it. The calls from different parts of the country show its favor among the public. It is confidently recommended as a perfect and unfailing cure, and never yet has it deceived those who make trial of it.

☞ FEVER and AGUE is speedily cured by Dr. Osgood's INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The health of thousands has been perfectly restored by this medicine, when all other remedies have failed. Its operation is not simply to suspend the disease for a time, but to purify the system, and restore it to sound and and perfect health. To be found at A. F. CLARKE'S Drug Store.

☞ The QUESTION SETTLED!! beyond a doubt that FEVER and AGUE can be speedily cured without the least injury to the constitution, by the use of "DR. GRANDISON'S MAGIC BALSAM." Hundreds of persons can testify to its superiority over all other medicines that are "recommended" to cure.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, a day of thanksgiving and Prayer has heretofore been observed in this Territory, and is deemed proper in a Christian community; I therefore recommend to the people to meet at the usual places of worship, on Wednesday the 17th day of December next, to unite in appropriate acts of devotion, and supplication to Almighty God, humbly confessing our sins as individuals and as a community, and while we seek to obtain pardon for our past offences, implore the mercies of our Heavenly Father, let us supplicate his blessings on the people of this Territory, and the continuance of our civil and religious privileges, devoutly thanking him for the fruitfulness of the past seasons, and for the many blessings we enjoy in this favored Land of Liberty; that he would prosper the people in all the branches of honest industry, and give efficiency to all the means of reformation, benevolence and knowledge; increasing the influence of divine truth, to correct, purify and elevate the character of the people, so as to render them worthy of blessings as heirs of an immortal hope through Jesus Christ our Lord.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, { L.S. } and caused the Great Seal of the Territory to be hereunto affixed, at Madison, this 5th day of November, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-Five. HENRY DODGE.

SAY! STRANGER—have you been in

LUDINGTON & Co's Store on the corner, since they have received their [illegible] GOODS? [illegible] It is astonishing indeed to see such a quantity of Goods, and so great an assortment, in any one store. I have often heard people say that they had a very large stock of Goods, but I never had an idea that their stock was so tremendously large. I have been all around town, at their Wholesale Stores, "Cheap [illegible]," "One Price Store," "Great Excitement" Stores, [illegible] other Houses in the Territory [illegible] "New Stores," "Western Stores," &c. &c. but after visiting all, I put LUDINGTON & Co's. Store down at extra No. 1. You will find them willing to [illegible] Goods cheap for cash at one fair price, without the least excitement, not [illegible] in town, and they have a fine assortment of Fancy Goods, and will sell as cheap as [illegible] new store in this Western country. They have according to the best authority and my own observations, the largest and best selected assortment of Goods in Milwaukie, and their prices appear to give first rate satisfaction among the people. It appears strange, but it is nevertheless true, that they should sell so many Goods to so many people. Why you can hardly go into any town in Wisconsin but what you will see undoubted evidences that they are doing a tremendous large business. As far out as the Mineral region—you [illegible] further you will see dry goods boxes, barrels, kegs, &c. &c. with Ludington & Co's name on, which is a strong indication that they were sent there from their store, filled with Goods. Ask the principal residents of Milwaukie, Washington, Dodge, Walworth, Fortine, Fond du Lac, Marquette and numerous other counties, where they buy their dry goods, groceries, hardware, crockery, boots and shoes, leather, stone ware, wooden ware, sash, glass, ropes, paints, oils, pork, fish, salt, lumber, lath and shingles and Minor & Horton's celebrated unrivaled Plough—they will tell you at the "Old Corner Store" in Milwaukie. Ask them still farther where they sell their produce, wheat, corn, oats, barley, timothy and flax seed, beeswax, hides, &c. &c. and who pays the highest cash price, and they will tell you LUDINGTON & Co. of Milwaukie. oct9 Com

[illegible] No objection in the [illegible] will answer your question with the greatest pleasure [illegible] When to SAYRS—got seventy cents per bushel [illegible] I have [illegible] the PEOPLE'S STORE [illegible] Store first opened. He always pays me the highest price for what I take to market, and sells me what ever I want a great deal cheaper than I can buy at any other store.—Cloth at four shillings, Shoes at from two shillings and six pence to one [illegible] Hats [illegible] dollar and a quarter, Molasses at four shillings, good Sugar at nine cents, and my Wife says that his six shilling Tea is better than we ever bought in York State for one dollar, besides he has one of the very largest in town. Why, if one quarter of the stores on the east side of the river had such steels they would make the greatest noise about it you ever [illegible] agine. You can scarcely call for an article that he hasn't got—no old shop keeper's lying around, everything looks new and good, and how he can afford to sell so cheap when all the other store keepers are complaining about the advance of prices, I cannot tell, but certain it is the People have found him out, and there are constant streams of customers going in and out of his store, and it is really amusing to see how happy they all look as they go home with their arms, baskets and wagons filled with Dry Goods, Groceries or whatever else they may have wanted, not only [illegible] in Milwaukie [illegible] with all my [illegible] do your trading at HENRY SAYRS PEOPLE'S STORE.

CLEMENS INDIAN TONIC.—An

infallible cure for chills or ague and fever. The unexampled success of this truly unrivalled Tonic in curing in a few hours, when ALL other remedies have failed, and that, too in cases of from six to ten months standing, warrants the assertion that if taken according to the directions an entire cure will be effected, and as a test of its efficacy I warrant a cure in six days or give another bottle without any charge, but as yet not a single case has come back not cured.
